

BELGIAN HERITAGE CENTER

Photo Contest – Women at Work and at Play

May 2023

Angeline Haevers Hodek, owner Haevers Millinery Store      MAY WINNER

Angeline (second from left) co-owned the store with her sister, Albertine. This was the first store on Main Street in Green Bay. Circa 1900

Submitted by Phyllis Haevers

Virginia Dandois feeding chickens

Son Johnny, seventh child of Virginia and husband Hubert, is by the barn

Submitted by Patricia Bouchonville Targett

Adele Delwiche driving tractor
With Adam Jadin (left) and Blanche
Submitted by Arlene Rentmeester

Cecelia Clabots (Vandenberg) at Clabots' homestead
Humboldt, early 1900's
Submitted by Izana Watruba (Clabots)

Ancestors of Doloris (Pierquet) Heyrman doing laundry Unidentified ancestors of Doloris taken northeast of Green Bay before 1927.
Submitted by Janice Heyrman Nelson

Alice Josephine Young Sharkey at Resthaven Resort

Alice's parents owned Resthaven resort on Pelican Lake. She reopened the resort in 1947 after returning from service in the UK during the war. Her great-grandmother, Marie Van Steelandt, immigrated from Zwevezele, Belgium

Lena Gerondale Pierre

Baking bread (left) and as a young woman at right.

Submitted by Susan Gilson

Gloria Pierre Vandermause and Jean Neuville Malcore digging a ditch

Submitted by Susan Gilson

Lena Gerondale
Pierre plowing
Lena (far right) with Phil Pierre, Arthur
Pierre, Claudette Pierre
Mirkes

Submitted by Susan
Gilson

Margaret Pierre Miller, Lena Gerondale Pierre, Elaine Pierre Guilette

From left Margaret Pierre Miller, Lena Gerondale Pierre, Elaine Pierre Guilette (on tractor)
Arthur Pierre, Bernard Pierre

Submitted by Susan Gilson

Lena Gerondale
Pierre and granddaughter
Maureen Miller
DeBroux working in the garden

Submitted by Susan
Gilson

Mary (Jauquet)
Lampereur at her spinning wheel

Taken in 1962 at her home in Namur at age 87. Spinning wheel is on display in the school/convent at BHC.

Submitted by Mike Lampereur